Gustav Klimt

Master painter during the Belle Époque in Vienna, Gustav Klimt is known for his highly decorative and elaborate painting style. As a symbolist he embellished his stylized portraits and figures in his paintings with swirls, dots, and stripes in all sorts of subdued but tasteful colours, set against a background of gold leaf.

Such is the beauty and elegance of Klimt's work that it still speaks to us over a century later. Who wouldn't want to receive romantic kisses on a card with Klimt's The Kiss on its cover?

Ingrid Smuling

Schooled at the Royal Academy in The Hague during the 1960s, Ingrid Smuling is the 'grande dame' of detailed flower and tableware painting in a classical style. Smuling's monochromatic walls and tables provide the perfect backdrop for her vibrantly coloured, hand-picked bouquets placed in porcelain cups or delicate silver vases.

With her elegant still lives, Ingrid Smuling (The Hague, 1944) portrays a serene world, in which classical elegance prevails. A feast for the eye on any note card or calendar.

Photographer Bas Meeuws is a self-taught artist. Working in the visual tradition of 17th-century Dutch masters, Meeuws's camera and digital techniques bring flower still lifes to a whole new level. With such an eye for detail and the richness of nature's colours, Bas Meeuws draws us into his photographs, only to surprise us with the sudden appearance of an insect or bird.

It is for good reason his opulent flower still lifes are shown all over the world. And now they also adorn some of Bekking & Blitz's finest products.

His current exhibition, "Flowers in Blue, Through the lens of Bas Meeuws", is on display at the Royal Delft Museum until the 10th of September 2023.

With her brightly coloured paintings, Judith Stam certainly knows how to bring about a joyful spirit. Her favourite subject? Groups of women, of all sizes and colours, bursting into song. Surely a pretty picture that will put a smile on most people's faces.

The pleasure Judith Stam has in painting these figures can be felt in all her work. So, if you want to put your favourite aunt in a happy place, be sure to send her a Judith Stam card!

BEKKING & BLITZ

A labyrinthine world, a kaleidoscope of forms; these seem the best words to describe the works of M.C. Escher. Intrigued by geometrical patterns and architecture, Escher was able to translate this fascination into intricate drawings. During his lifetime, M.C. Escher made over 448 lithography's, woodcuts, and wood engravings and over 2000 sketches drawings, although his work was only fully appreciated very late in life.

Still, his intricate drawings have been and always will be an inspiration to people all over the world. It is no wonder his works make Bekking & Blitz products such a pleasure to look at.
